How to handle
Combination Products

Objective

The aim of the course is to identify similarities and differences between FDA's and European regulations for Combination Products.

During the course, speakers will cover the various regulatory requirements for Medicinal Products/ Drugs and Medical Devices and present their similarities and differences. How to launch a Combination Product on the market will also be part of the presentations. Moreover, Case Studies about approval procedures of combination products will give practical orientation. It is also important to know which QM system fits the US and the EU requirements and what their similarities are. Also this topic will be discussed.

A Notified Bodies representative will explain the EU certification procedure for Medical Devices.

Background

Combinations of Medicinal Products/Drugs, Medical Devices and/or Biologics are becoming more and more important for the market, e. g. for the delivery of a medication. Such "Combination Products" meet two worlds: the pharmaceutical regulation world and the world of the Medical Devices Regulations.

In the EU the GMP requirements for Medicinal Products are laid down in the GMP Guideline based on an EU regulation. The medical devices industry was regulated by three EU directives and one amending directive in the past. The Medical Device Regulation has changed this in 2021. The distribution of Medical Devices in Europe is based on a CE Certification. Medical Devices Inspections are primarily performed by Notified Bodies.

The basis for the approval process of Medicinal Products /Drugs is for both the EU and the USA the ICH Common Technical Document (CTD). Inspections are performed by authorities. In the USA, there are special approval processes for Medical Devices.

The US-FDA has developed own GMP regulations for Drugs (21 CFR 210/211), Medical Devices (21 CFR 820), Biologics (21 CFR 600 – 680) and tissue-based products (21 CFR 1271) So far, there had been no standalone GMP regulations for combination products. This has changed only at the FDA since 22 July 2013 with the publication of FDA's 21 CFR Part 4 (cGMP Requirements for Combination Products). An Office of Combination Products is responsible for this products in the USA. Until now, there is nothing comparable to 21 CFR 4 regarding Combination Products in the EU.

Target Audience

This event has been especially designed for the manufacturers who are subject to Combination Products and want to become familiar with the practice-oriented implementation of the legal requirements in the USA and in Europe.
