Background

Since September 2015, the "Guidelines on principles of Good Distribution Practice of active substances for medicinal products for human use" have been obligatory. The driving force behind these Guidelines is the combat against falsified drug substances and drug products. It is intended to control the entire supply chain and thus to mitigate the risk associated with complex distribution pathways. Well trained staff has to ensure that all the requirements of the guidelines are met. In several sections of the Guidelines, it is pointed out that a thorough training of the employees is important.

Educational Objectives

This webinar aims to give participants a comprehensive yet compact overview of current expectations concerning GDP for APIs.

The topics addressed are:

- Regulatory requirements and guidance
 - "Guidelines on principles of Good Distribution Practice of active substances for medicinal products for human use"
 - "WHO Good trade and distribution practices for pharmaceutical starting materials"
 - Ensuring compliance with the current requirements
- EU GDP for finished medicinal products and EU GDP for APIs: Similarities and differences
- Critical evaluation of individual aspects with regard to GDP for APIs
- Outlook: Where is the trend heading?

Target Audience

This webinar is designed for all persons from companies involved in the distribution and supply of APIs. Those are e.g. coworkers and high-level personnel from the following industries:

- API manufacturers
- API distributors and traders
- Pharmaceutical manufacturers
- Logistics companies
- External warehouses
- further service providers offering services for the distribution of APIs
